“ I'm sorry my babygirl. You were truly a gift from god too me and too many others. We are all lost now without you. You were the glue of this family. But I know you're in a better place now my lovey. I will always love you, I will always miss you, you have left a lifetime lasting impression on me and all my life I will never forget you and I'll spend the rest of my life making you proud of me and everything that I do our life was cut short my love bug and for whatever reason it was either God had a bigger plan for you or God wanted to punish me for some of the things I've done in this life but either way we always told each other that we thought God put us together for a reason maybe that reason is done maybe we fulfilled the reason but now I have to do what I have to do to be able to live and go on doesn't mean I'll forget you but I have to move on this world doesn't slow down for anybody that keeps moving doesn't matter what what happened all I want to do is to make you proud of me in this world and to keep doing things that I think that she would want me to do that way one day me and you will be reunited at the Gates of heaven when my time comes I love you and I miss you so much bye baby girl.
