“ Fidencio is my brother. He was a family man. He was a successful business man. He owned his own paint and body shop "Cantu Paint & Body Shop" and also his own used car lot "Cantu Auto Sales". We were very proud of all his accomplishments. He loved hunting and fishing and garage sales and flea markets. He loved life. He was always with a smile on his face when I saw him. He loved us all. He will be missed by his family.
