

Margie Hodges

September 28, 1952 - March 4, 2021

Margie Oday Hodges, age 68 passed away on Thursday, March 4, 2021. A graveside service will be held 2 pm Saturday, March 13th at Greenleaf Cemetery in Brownwood. There will be no formal visitation, but Margie will be lying in state at Heartland Funeral Home on Friday and Saturday before the services.

Margie was born September 28, 1952 in Coleman County to Roselus and Versie Mae Hodges. She married Horace Benjamin and began a life together that blessed them with 5 children. Margie loved cooking for her family and knitting during her down time. She loved spending time with her family, and providing them with a loving home.

Margie is survived by her 4 daughters, Louise Hodges, Lola Sisler, Versie Hodges and Shirley Hodges; sister Rose Mary Satberry; 17 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband Horace Benjamin; daughter Victoria Hodges; brother Rosalus Hodges Jr; and sister Christine Hodges.

Cemetery

Greenleaf Cemetery

2615 US 377 South
Brownwood, TX, 76801

Events

MAR Graveside Service 02:00PM - 02:30PM

13

Greenleaf Cemetery
2615 US-377, Brownwood, TX, US, 76801

Comments

“ I remember when I was a little girl and my mom would cook for us girls oh how I miss the smells of my moms cooking could no one cook like her always made sure to make enough to get us fool and have left overs, my favorite was her burrito mix I loved it and was always so happy to see there was left overs. mommy I miss you and I promise you that you will never be forgotten Love you mommy now I know you're with the Angels

Shirley Hodgs - March 29 at 12:44 PM

“ When I worked at the nursing home as a cleaning lady is so enjoyed visiting with this sweet lady Prayers for the family

Kim Moore - March 09 at 07:30 PM

“ thank you so much for your kind words.

Shirley Hodgs - March 29 at 12:47 PM