“ So sorry to hear of Sheri's passing, and so soon after Norman. But at least she is with her beloved Norman again in Heaven. She and Norman were always so kind to me, selfless mentors, and gave me so many opportunities. What wonderful people!

“ Sheri was a very good bridge player and a competitor. I enjoyed her wit and her company at our Tuesday afternoon duplicate bridge games here in Brownwood.

“ In life, as you grow older, the report card gets more and more precise in it's constructive criticism and education it provides. I was in Mrs. Kerr's 5th grade class at Bluebonnet. She was one of the greats. Mrs. Kerr held us all accountable for our actions as well as our education. Her tenacity in doing so continued well past our time in her classroom and the 5th grade.

I'm now 42 years old and when reminiscing my childhood, her classroom as well as my time spent there are among the most memorable.

I know I join the thousands in saying “thank you for making a difference!” Rest In Peace dear friend.

“ Thank you for the wonderful tribute to my mother. Teaching was her passion and she loved all of her students!

“ I am so sad to hear this. Blessings to your family during this difficult time. Mrs. Kerr was my fifth grade teacher many years ago. She was the first teacher that said it was ok to use fingers to count on because you always had them with you.

“ Sheri was a wonderful sweet and funny lady. She was very witty and would catch you off guard..I found that so funny and delightful at the same time, I know she will be missed greatly by so many. May she rest in Gods arms. Laura we are so sorry and may you and the kids find comfort and peace in the days ahead.

“ You described her perfectly!

“ The funniest thing I ever did with Sheri happened one day when my son, Ryan, was about 5 or so. I had parked my car in her driveway and went in the house with Ryan. He snuck out with my car keys - we suddenly heard horns blowing and people freaking out. She looked out her kitchen window and exclaimed - it's Ryan. I'm not a particularly small woman but both of us ran out that front door together to rescue Ryan from running into a car across the street. After we knew he was alright - we laughed so hard - I will never forget that day as long as I live! To show her generosity, while I was attending college to get my teaching degree she paid for my oldest son, Justin, to take piano lessons and gave him a key to her home so he had someplace to go after he got out of school. She loved me, my husband and especially my sweet boys. We will miss you terribly, Aunt Sheri!! hope you gave Norman our love!!
