“ Wes had one of the biggest hearts I ever met. I remember first meeting him when he worked at the Lorton Barbershop, and then reconnecting after almost a year at VIPBarber since I didn't know where he moved to, to him owning his own place. It's tragic to know the world lost such a good human being who was proud to finally have a place of his own. He always felt like family whenever I'd go see him... and he will be dearly missed. Rest In Peace, brother.

“ Hi I am so sorry for your loss, my boyfriend Spenser Bullock got his hair cut by Wes in Lorton, VA and he just found out that he has passed. He has been trying to get in contact with him for about a month and didn't want to think the worst when he never replied. He is devastated and wishes he had known sooner. Is there any chance you would mind telling me how he passed and if he has a gravestone we would be able to visit?

“ Wes wasn't just my barber he was my friend. There was never a bad time with him, he always knew how to make you laugh. He strongly believed in making sure everyone that walked through his doors and at on his chair felt like family. He would never judge , he would only show compassion and love. I wish I had known sooner. I would have never thought that the last time I gave him a hug goodbye would be the last. Wes I'll never forget you , I'll always keep you in my heart. Thank you for being an amazing friend and thank you for all you have done. You will be missed. Rest In Peace.

“ I have made so many amazing memories with Wes. He thought the world of me and taught me many things about myself. One of his very dear friends told him if he ever found a selfless person to never let them go. He told me I was the most selfless person he had ever met, that I always thought of others and never put myself first. I didn't find myself to be special, but Wes did. He valued our friendship and for that God blessed me. We would laugh untill we were both uncontrollably laughing. His laugh was unique and infectious. He loved his family so deeply and Grant you were everything to him. I'm so proud of you Wes for your journey to finding peace and happiness and would give anything to have had the chance to tell you. I wish I could have shown you how beautiful Audrie has become and how big Korbin has gotten. Just like you always said he would be, he is a ladies man. I know being with your dad again has you smiling so bright from Heaven. Until we meet again my friend, I love and miss you dearly.

“ Met Wes about about 3 years ago. We became friends on the spot. He was working in the Lorton Barber shop at the time. We talked about concerts, bands we liked, sports, about anything you could think of we talked about. I was able to see him one last time at the beginning of June, and I'm extremely lucky to have. I'll think of that moment the rest of my life. I'll never forget that smoker laugh and that kick ass beard. I'll miss you Wes, I'll meet you up there some day.

“ Wes and the "Man Cave" were our neighbors at Telegraph Square. We did not know him well, but he was always very friendly and quick to offer assistance. Very recently, he called me into his shop as I was leaving to show me his new bike, he was so happy and proud to show it off! It is always sad when someone so full of life passes suddenly.

Our sincerest sympathy goes out to all of his friends and family.
